

TREE WEEK SYMPOSIUM 2018

FRIDAY 4 MAY

AUSTRALIAN NATIONAL BOTANIC GARDENS THEATRETTE

Time	Proceedings	Speaker
12:30pm	Arrive
12:45pm	Welcome and opening
1:00pm	Tree happenings at the Yarralumla Nursery	Chris Ware Manager Yarralumla Nursery
1:30pm	Biochar – What is it and how could we use it in the ACT	Christian Bihlmaier, Forester, ACT Parks & Conservation Services & Dr Jessica Shepherd
2:00pm	Safeguarding a superb future	Laura Rayner Woodland Fauna Ecologist ACT Parks and Conservation Service
2:30pm	Trials and tribulations of growing trees at the National Arboretum Canberra	Dr Matt Parker Operations Manager National Arboretum Canberra
3:00pm	Afternoon tea
3:30pm	Forest Capital – a history of forestry in the ACT	Neil Cooper Manager Fire forests and Roads ACT Parks and Conservation Service
4:00pm	Canberra's Urban Forest: life and death situations	Associate Professor Cris Brack Fenner School of Environment & Society Australian National University
4:30pm	Data-driven Urban Forest Management	Owen Earl Manager, Strategic Planning & Development City Services
5:00pm	How Canberra's urban forest can protect us from climate change	Catherine Keirnan Senior Policy Officer Climate Change & Sustainability
5:15pm	Networking
5:30pm	Close	