- h) An organisation that uses a third party to transport its waste to landfill must ensure the following.
- The engaged third party holds a current waste transporter registration under the Waste Management and Resource Recovery Act 2016.

- i) The organisation must not bring readily recyclable material to landfill under the fee waiver. Generally, something will be considered ‘readily recyclable’ if there are free recycling options available in the ACT. TCCS will update its advice from time to time about what types of material are “readily recyclable” and where those materials should be taken. At the date on which this fee waiver was granted, “readily recyclable” material included the following:

Aluminium and steel cans, glass bottles and jars, rigid plastic containers, paper and cardboard. These items can be drop off free-of-charge at the Mugga Lane or Mitchell Resource Management Centres (open seven days a week, 7.30am – 5pm) or the recycling centres at Scollay Street in Tuggeranong, Jolly Street in Belconnen, Botany Street in Phillip or Baillieu Court in Mitchell, or O’Brien Place in Gungahlin (open seven days a week, 24 hours a day).

Appliances (excluding refrigerators, televisions or computers). These may be drop off free-of-charge at The Green Shed at Mugga Lane or Mitchell Resource Management Centres. You may wish to call to confirm conditions associated with acceptance of these items.

Note that some organisations in the ACT may collect white goods and metal free-of-charge.

Toys. Children's toys in good condition can be drop off free-of-charge at The Green Shed at Mugga Lane or Mitchell Resource Management Centres. You may wish to call to confirm conditions associated with acceptance of these items.

- j) The organisation must recycle and recover as much waste as feasible before sending any waste to landfill under the fee waiver.

This will require organisations that generate waste from their operations to maintain separate waste and recycling bins. Organisations may purchase commercial recycling services to assist. Alternatively, they may drop off their recycling free-of-charge to ACT Government facilities at the Mugga Lane or Mitchell Resource Management Centres (open seven days a week, 7.30am – 5pm) or the Recycling Centres at Scollay Street in Tuggeranong, Jolly Street in Belconnen, Botany Street in Phillip or Baillieu Court in Mitchell, or O'Brien Place in Gungahlin (open seven days a week, 24 hours a day). The ACT Government program ACTSmart helps organisations to establish recycling services (<http://www.actsmart.act.gov.au/>).

Organisations with large amounts of material that are not recyclable through the outlets listed at (h) should investigate other outlets. For instance, those with fabric and lesser-quality clothing should investigate delivery to rag merchants.

Organisations should take other steps to maximise recycling, such as the following.

- Train staff about the importance of recycling and reuse;
- Develop thorough sorting processes;
- Communicate with other charities and second-hand dealers about potential new markets;
- Send items to interstate or overseas charities where such items are scarce; and
- Reduce the price of items on sale before deciding to dispose of them. And set general price reductions or donate items from the shop if not sold at the asking price. A “free corner” in the shop will encourage more people to come in, browse and buy other things while they are there, as well as reducing waste to landfill and providing a better outcome for the community.

Organisations may contact ACTSmart for advice about business recycling.

- k) The organisation must separate out and identify at the weighbridge “counted items” when delivering waste to landfill. No charges will apply, but separation allows the ACT Government to monitor these items and ensure they are processed appropriately. At the date on which this fee waiver was granted, ‘counted items’ included televisions and computers.
- l) The organisation must comply with conditions imposed by the Minister on the fee waiver. Conditions may be imposed at the time at which the fee waiver is granted or subsequently. If conditions are imposed subsequently, they will take effect ten business days after TCCS has sent the organisation written notification to the contact address given by the organisation.
- m) The organisation must allow TCCS staff to inspect the organisation’s facilities to ensure recycling systems are appropriate (such as ensuring that compactors are used for waste only and that separate waste and recycling bins are in place and are being used). Inspections will be by arrangement with at least 48 hours’ notice and will not occur more than twice per calendar year.
- n) The Minister may terminate the fee waiver at any time. The Minister may do so due to a breach of a condition or for public policy or other reasons. Termination will take effect ten business days after written notification has been sent to the contact address given by the organisation.
