(2) Landscape and aesthetic value

The object of this value is to identify trees that are of particular importance to the community due to their substantial contribution to the surrounding landscape.

A tree may be considered to be of landscape and aesthetic value if it is situated in a prominent location when viewed from a public place and it:

- (a) contributes significantly to the surrounding landscape based on its overall form, structure, vigour and aesthetic values; or
- (b) represents an outstanding example of the species, including age, size or habit; or
- (c) is an exceptional example of a locally native species that reached maturity prior to urban development in its immediate vicinity.

Statement against the Criteria

This beautiful, remnant yellow box tree provides valuable habitat for local fauna and provides a link between the surrounding nature reserves and the suburb of Gordon. It has a vigorous, healthy, well balance canopy and is a real feature in the surrounding landscape based on its prominent location, form and size. It is an exceptional example of a locally native species that reached maturity prior to urban development.
