(2) Landscape and aesthetic value

The object of this value is to identify trees that are of particular importance to the community due to their substantial contribution to the surrounding landscape.

A tree may be considered to be of landscape and aesthetic value if it is situated in a prominent location when viewed from a public place and it:

- (a) contributes significantly to the surrounding landscape based on its overall form, structure, vigour and aesthetic values; or
- (b) represents an outstanding example of the species, including age, size or habit; or
- (c) is an exceptional example of a locally native species that reached maturity prior to urban development in its immediate vicinity.

Statement against the Criteria

This Eucalyptus melliodora is one of five individual trees located in the new estate of Forde which has been selected for inclusion to the ACT Tree Register. The tree is an exceptional example which has effectively been incorporated into urban open space within a high quality landscape. The tree is valuable as it provides high aesthetic and landscape qualities.

This impressive tree has a single trunk with a large spreading canopy. It has a height of approximately 17.0meters, a canopy width of 26.3metres and a trunk circumference of 3.0metres. The tree does carry some mistletoe which is natural phenomena and a part of the local ecology.

The trees are all located within urban open space in prominent locations. Careful planning has allowed for a large number of remnant eucalypts to be retained which provide landscape maturity in a suburb which is only a few years old.
